

When working on the roof, warning lines need to be 15' from the edge of the building.

